

Acticide MV

Preservative for water soluble metalworking fluids

Description

Preservative (biocide) for water soluble metalworking fluids. Original product datasheet and safety datasheets from supplier are available on request.

Applications

Preservative to avoid deterioration and degradation of aqueous systems caused by bacteria, fungi and yeast.

Environment, Health and Safety

Please consult the Material Safety Data Sheet for instructions regarding safe handling and environmental issues.

Remarks

Please contact your Q8Oils representative for further advice and support on your specific application and equipment.